Mr. Gary denied that the United States Steel Corporation controlled either the price of steel rails or of from ore. He aroused the interest of the committee by declaring that an in-crease in the price of rails would be necessary soon, because "the cost of producing rails has greatly increased in the last ten years; wages have in-creased, specifications are different, heavy equipment and increased speed of railroads demanding bigger and bet-ter rails."

DIES. Himman and Son Use an Umbrella and Chair on C. W. Lewis.

Winsted, Conn., June 2.—Mrs. Charles Himman, of 45 Decatur Street, Brooklyn. N. Y., who has a summer residence in Southbury, and her son, Edward, aged twenty-one, are charged with assaulting Charles W. Lewis, a motorist, at the Curtiss House, in Woodbury. Mrs. Himman is guid to have employed an umbrella in the attack, and her son a chair. Warrants have been issued for their arrest.

Mrs. Himman and her son were driving by the Curtiss House in an automobile, when she saw Lewis seated on the hotel veranda. The machine was stopped quickly, and both alighted; then, it is said, they made an attack on Lewis, who sought refuge in the office, closing and ideking the door after him. Mrs. Himman and her son broke down the door and smashed a window, and, saining admittance, resumed the attack on Lewis, which is said to be owing to the latter's attentions to Mrs. Himman's daughter, Elsio, aged fifteen, who resides with her father in Woodbury. The Himmans, who are reputed to be wealthy, live apart. Each instituted divorce proceedings against the other last winter.

Mrs. Lewis, now of Oxford, also recently sued her husband for divorce and allmony.

The President told Mr. Powers that he would consider the case of the condemned weman, if the application for a pardon is presented to him through the regular channels of the Department of Justice.

Thinks It Would Be Disgrace.

"While I may be a little prejudiced against capital punishment, I believe it would be a stain on our national honor to allow a woman to be executed in the capital of the nation." said Mr. Powers. "If no one else will take steps to have the woman's sentence commuted I will see that the matter is regularly laid before President Taft. This woman may be black, but she is nevertheless a woman and ought not be hanged."

Mr. Powers said he pointed out to the President that the Lomax woman is the first woman that has ever been condemned to death by a civil court in Washington. Mrs. Surratt, who was hanged for complicity in the murder Thinks It Would Be Disgrace.
